MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT

: Office of Training Weekly Report

1. Evidence of Changes at DIA Seen Through Project HELPFUL

observed that it was generally informative and well-conducted. His impression is that both the ideas of DIA's new Director, Lt. General Donald V. Bennett, and the added intelligence responsibilities of Robert Froelke, Assistant Secretary of Defense (Administration) will effect major changes in DIA during the next few months. No one is certain of the exact nature of the changes, but speakers reflected unanimity on the view that many were coming.

2. New Coordinator for the National Interdepartmental Seminar

25X1A9a

CIA faculty representative to NIS, reports that Mr. Howard E. Haugerud has succeeded Ambassador Deming as Seminar Coordinator. Mr. Haugerud's most recent assignment, at

Assistant Secretary rank, was with the Office of the Inspector General of Foreign Assistance, Department of State. He is aware of the prevalent criticism concerning the value and effectiveness of the NIS. His initial opinion is distinctly favorable, and he intends to correct any misconceptions about the Seminar. Further, he plans to find ways of strengthening State's leadership role and attendance at the Seminar. Significantly, an OTR instructor who attended the 46th Session which ended on 14 November, considered the NIS to be of high quality and useful in terms of substantive content.

3. Deputy Director for Plans to Meet with Career Trainees

Mr. Karamessines, at his request, will meet on 2 December at Headquarters with the 21 Career Trainees who completed the Operations Course (Phase II) on 21 November. All 21 Trainees are members of the Class of March 1969 and are scheduled for assignments to the CS.

4. Progress on New Operations Course Continues

A senior instructor with the Operations School this week briefed the teaching staff of the Operations Course (Phase I) and the various features of the Professional Development Program for Claudestine Service officers, a new course for mid-level personnel. The briefing included information on course structure, major blocks of instruction to be organized and managed by Staff I and differences between this Program and the Operations Course for Career Trainees. Further discussions were held on administrative matters and the kind of support available from the Operations School in compiling instruction materials.

5. Language School Benefits from Cooperation with Defease Department

Last June LS provided the Air Force with a set of instruction materials on the PAI Course in Vietnamese, a course developed under Agency contract

Last week the Air Force sent the Language School, at no cost, 200 sets of the Vietnamese instruction materials and, as a bonus, added 200 sets of a similar course in Thai, developed under a Department of Defense centract. The Defense

Language Institute served as a coordinator in the entire transaction.

6. Orientation Program Given for Departing Commo Personnel

On 18 and 19 November, representatives from the Schools of Intelligence and International Communism conducted orientation sessions at for Comme personnel and their wives who are scheduled for immediate assignment to overseas stations. The program was attended by 25 Communications employees and ten wives.

7. Development of Geographic Intelligence Training Manual Possible

Representatives of the Geographic Division/OBGI and the Intelligence School have agreed on the desirability of preparing a manual on geographic intelligence for use in training new professional employees. The OBGI representative will discuss the proposal with officials of the Geographic Division.

8. Inter-Agency Panel Notes Development in Area Training

The OTR representative to the Inter-Agency Roundtable for Area

Training reports that the Foreign Service Institute is planning to construct country kits to serve as a focus for self-study by students taking FSI's courses on world regions. FSI is currently evaluating a twoweek Area Training Course which will probably replace the presently offered three-week courses. USIA has already compiled selected briefing materials on more than 100 countries.

9. Secret Service Personnel Complete Training

25X1A6a 25X1A14a personnel conducted a 40-hour course, 3 - 7 November,

Service. The officers were thoroughly interested in the training and the quality of their work was good even though none had had previous experience in demolitions. The students evaluated the training most favorably and recommended that the course be lengthened or that advanced training be offered. Two similar courses for Secret Service personnel will be
